Clements, Mathew, was born in Little York, now Toronto, in 1826. His parents were John Clements and Jane Barr, daughter of the late William Barr, of Omagh, in the County of Tyrone, Ireland. Mr. John Clements was a farmer, and in 1823 came to Canada and settled in Cornwall. In 1825 he removed to Little York, where he remained until 1831. Once more he removed, then to the township of Trafalgar, in the County of Halton, and settled on a farm within a mile of Milton, now the county town, and remained there until his death, which occurred on the 21st February, 1873, greatly lamented by all his neighbours. He was known as a zealous Christian and an upright man. Mrs. Clements is still alive, and enjoys good health.

By marriage Mr. Clements had a family of ten children, and the subject of this sketch was the eldest. Mr. William Clements, the second son, is deputy sheriff under Mr. Mathew Clements. Mathew received a common school education, and after leaving school went to farming, in the township of Trafalgar, where he remained for thirty-one years. In 1882, he removed to the town of Milton, and was appointed sheriff of the county in the same year, and this position he still continues to hold. Mr. Clements was an assessor for eleven years for the township, and in 1868 was elected councilman for the township. This office he held for two successive years, and in 1870 was elected deputy reeve, which office he retained until the year 1875. In this year he was elected reeve of the township, remaining reeve until 1881; during this period he was warden of the county for two years. In 1882 he was, as we have already seen, appointed sheriff of the County of Halton, and in 1854 he was appointed a justice of the peace. In religion he is a Methodist and in politics an advanced Reformer. Progress has ever been his motto. Mr. Clements held for several years the secretaryship of the Halton division of the Grange Lodge. Mr. Clements married, in 1853, Margaret Orr, daughter of the late Andrew Orr, of the township of Trafalgar. They have three children, two sons and one daughter. He is a strong advocate of temperance, and a supporter of the Scott Act and its aims.

OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN CLEMENTS.

Another of our old and highly esteemed neighbors has passed away from earth in the person of Mr. John Clements. He was born in the North of Ireland on the 22nd of June, 1798, and died at his residence near Milton on the 21st of February 1873, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. In August, 1823, he came to this country, and about forty-two years ago he and his wife settled on their present farm, where they have resided ever since. It stands to the credit of Mr. Clements that with his own hands he chopped down the first tree on his place, and he was one of a noble race of men - the pioneers of our county - who are rapidly disappearing. By a course of honest industry and the blessing of God on his efforts he succeeded in securing not only the necessaries but the comforts of life. His long residence in this section of country secured for him a large circle of acquaintances, and with increased acquaintance there has been continued and increasing respect. As a neighbour he was kind and obliging; as a husband and father he had affection and firmness combined; and as a business man he was strict and honorable, carefully avoiding to take advantage of any one and giving no one an opportunity to take advantage of him. For a length of time his extreme feebleness has prevented him from leaving home and much of his time has been spent in reading and meditation; and while exceedingly fond of reading good books on various subjects, the Bible was his favorite book and from it he derived much encouragement and strength when otherwise feeble and suffering. His funeral took place on Sunday afternoon the 23rd inst. A very large concourse of relatives and friends assembled at the house at 1 o'clock and proceeded to the New Connexion Church, where an appropriate sermon was preached by the Rev. Mr. Brown, founded on Genesis 25th chapter, 8th verse: "Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people," the Rev. Mr. Orr of Trafalgar assisting in the service; thence to the cemetery where his remains were quietly deposited in the kindred dust. Mr. Clements leaves behind him an aged widow, nine children, twenty-one grandchildren and a wide circle of acquaintances. May the family be sustained by Him who has promised to be the "husband of the widow and the father of the fatherless."- COM.

MILTON

Mr. Samuel Clements, who died on Tuesday at the residence of Mrs. Clements, at the ripe age of 85 years, was an old and respected resident of Halton and an uncle of Sheriff Clements. He was a native of Ireland and in his youth served for some time in the British army and saw more or less active service. His kindly, genial disposition make him a great favorite with all who knew him. - Champion.
