Harbour Grace - Estate of Charles Garland of Harbor Grace Intestate, 1834

[Advisors?] granted Mar 3(d) 1834 to Eliz(th) Garland Widow of Deceased

SUPREME COURT OF NEWFOUNDLAND

Harbor Grace } I Do swear that I believe Charles Garland late of Harbor Grace Gentleman my husband deceased, died without a Will; and that I will well and truly Administer all and every the Goods of the said deceased, and pay his Debts so far as his Goods will extend; and that I will exhibit a true, full and perfect Inventory of the said Goods of the deceased, and render a true account of my Administration into the Registry of the said Court, within Twelve months from the date hereof, or when shall be thereunto lawfully required; and that the whole of the Goods, Rights, Chattels, Assets, Credits, and Effects of the said deceased, which he died possessed of, within the jurisdiction of this Court, do not, according to the best of my knowledge, judgment and belief, amount to the value of Three hundred Pounds sterling.

[Signed] Elizabeth Garland

Sworn at Harbor Grace the Twenty Ninth day of April in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and thirty four 1834 Before me

[Signed] John [St___k?]
Clerk and Registrar

To the Honorable Henry John Boulton Esquire Chief Justice and the Honorables the Assistant Judges of the Supreme Court of Newfoundland etc, etc, etc

The Petition of Elizabeth Garland Widow of Charles Garland late of Harbor Grace Gentleman, Honorably Sheweth That your Petitioners husband died in the year 1815, leaving your Petitioner, and Six Children him surviving, of the several ages, hereunder specified; - that since the destruction of your Petitioners late House, by the fire at Harbor Grace, your Petitioner finds it absolutely necessary; that a small portion of land, which was the only Property left by your Petitioners husband should be divided according to law; your Petitioner therefore humbly brings that your lordships will be pleased to commit Administration to her, she being quite ready to enter into the named Bonds property to Administer according to law.

And your Petitioner
as in duty bound
